Blackfinch Group is an award-winning investment specialist with a heritage dating back over 25 years. A trusted provider, we work in partnership with advisers. Our businesses cover tax-efficient solutions, early stage investing, managed portfolio services, property financing and renewable energy. As an environmental, social and governance (ESG) investor, we work for a positive impact. We're proud to be entrusted with over £600 million in assets under management and administration.

Purpose of Role

Exciting opportunity to join a passionate and growing Technology team within Blackfinch, designing leading-edge products and services.

An expert practitioner with broad industry experience who can define and lead with best practice while influencing design and strategy.

The senior product designer understands how the digital economy is changing user behaviour and the financial landscape, able to visualise, articulate and solve complex concepts, moving from analysis to synthesis and/or design intent. Interpreting vision and leading on decisions, able to apply technical knowledge and experience to design and create workable prototypes.

User focus is key, understanding needs and intent, based on evidence, able to translate to user journeys and propose design approaches and services to meet those needs.

Collaborate and communicate effectively across the organisation, understanding context. Making complex and technical information straightforward and accessible.

Key Accountabilities

- Collaborate on the design of products and services across the organisation.
- Work with key business stakeholders to develop design concepts.
- Facilitate discussions across high risk interactions and complexity, managing expectations.
- Identify and implement solutions that reflect in-depth digital understanding.
- Design systems for use across multiple services, identifying the simplest approach from a variety of solutions.
- Experienced in meeting the needs of users across a range of channels.
- Strong design focus in a fast-paced and agile work environment.
- Understand user needs and requirements, able to develop user journeys.
- Drive design, user experience (UX) and user interface (UI) within the organisation forward across products.
- Familiar designing with design systems, and component driven designs.

Skills & Qualifications

To be a successful Senior Product Designer you will have circa 5+ years' experience in product and interaction design on web and mobile devices.

You will be a talented designer with excellent interpersonal skills, able to articulate complex issues, and extract insights from stakeholders and users.

A proactive collaborative approach and ability to communicate across the organisation is key for this role.

Strong design focus and experience driving best practice, while maintaining high performance, you will be a strong team player and have an innate ability in pro-actively supporting colleagues.

If you believe you have the skills and experience for this role, we'd be interested to hear from you.
